DECISION ON DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

Gowen, Special Master:

On June 4, 2014, Marlon Sporer (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. The petition alleges that he suffered from the Table injury of anaphylaxis and related sequelae, or that, in the alternative, he suffered from an injury that was caused-in-fact by a Tetanus Toxoid (“TT”) vaccine. Petition at ¶ 1. On September 3, 2014, respondent filed a Rule 4(c) Report [“Respondent’s Report”], in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation for a right arm injury and sterile abscess caused-in-fact by a TT vaccination administered on April 6, 2009. Respondent’s Report at 4. The undersigned issued a Ruling on Entitlement on September 4, 2014 in favor of petitioner.

On February 23, 2015, respondent filed a Proffer on award of compensation, indicating that petitioner has agreed to award of compensation in the amount of $80,000 to be paid to petitioner only, and an amount of $76,419.83 to be paid on petitioner’s behalf to the New York City Human Resources Administration. Petitioner’s counsel was contacted by the undersigned’s chambers on February 23, 2015, and he confirmed petitioner’s agreement with the proposed compensation amounts stated in the Proffer. Pursuant to the terms in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner the following compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a):

- 1. A lump sum payment of $80,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Marlon Sporer; and
- 2. A lump sum payment of $76,419.83 in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and the New York City Human Resources Administration at

This amount represents full satisfaction of any right of subrogation, assignment, claim, lien, or cause of action that the New York City Department of Social Services and/or the State of New York may have against any individual as a result of any Medicaid payments that the New York City Department of Social Services and/or the State of New York has made to or on behalf of petitioner from the date of his eligibility for benefits through the date of judgment in this case as a result of his vaccine-related injury suffered on or about April 6, 2009 under Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>3</sup>
